GOVERNMENT OF INDIA
TEXTILES
LOK SABHA

UNSTARRED QUESTION NO:860
ANSWERED ON:19.07.2002
EXEMPTION FOR SPINNING MILLS
CHADA SURESH REDDY

Will the Minister of TEXTILES be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Government are considering to exempt spinning mills to produce 50% of their yarn output for supply to handloom industry;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) the reasons for taking this decision?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF TEXTILES SHRI BASANAGOUDA R. PATIL (YATNAL)

(a) to (c) : No, Sir. However, the National Textile Policy 2000, inter-alia, provides for the review of Hank Yarn Obligation Order 2000 after taking into account the needs of the handloom weavers.